

MOTHER WILL CONFESS.

Walter Tremble's Wife Will Probably Tell a Very Sensational Story.

When the train pulled out Wednesday morning a man and woman sat on the last seat in the rear car, a dejected woebegone couple. They were Walter Tremble and wife, who had been brought from Cananea by Captain Mossman, of the rangers, and were being taken to Solomonville, where Walter Tremble will stand trial on a charge of rape committed at Duncan about six months ago.

The victim was the daughter of the woman who claims to be Tremble's wife and says the mother was a party to the heinous crime.

When Sheriff Parks arrived in Bisbee on Tuesday he immediately caused the arrest of the woman, who since her husband's arrest has been allowed to remain at a lodging-house in this city.

When the woman was placed in jail she was visibly affected and told Sheriff Parks that she would be with her little girl in the matter, and that she was desirous of having a talk alone with the sheriff at the first opportunity.

The daughter of the woman also tells a gruesome story of a murder committed in New Mexico on the Pecos river, and the dead man's body being buried in the sand along the river.

Feeling is very bitter in Graham county over the affair, and Tremble did not escape any too quick to prevent a lynching bee.—Bisbee Review.

EXERCISE YOUR MEMORY.

It Never Fails, but Simply Becomes Languid From Non-Use.

Memory does not "fail" except in loss of all the faculties: it simply gets weak and languid from want of use—just as the physical organs do. People often say "My memory is failing," when it is really as good as ever, if they would give it a chance. A word, a date, a name, an incident, comes up, or rather fails to come up when you want it. There seems to be no possible way of remembering it. You make two or three efforts, give it up, and say: "There's no use; it's gone from me!"

Nonsense!—It hasn't! It is there just as much as it ever was; only there are a lot of things over it. Keep a work; bring your will to bear upon it; try and try and try, and after a while you can get it.

And better, you will find that the exercise required in remembering it will help you next time, and that a little toil and determination put together will accomplish wonders in the whole range of the faculties. Look over your memory, see where you are most deficient, and exercise it in that respect. You can do it at any odd time; while you are walking, riding, resting after a day's work, or listening perforce to a dull speaker. Don't let a few failures discourage you; the long corridors of recollection, lined upon both sides with valuable material, will be opened for you because of your importunity, if you use it—Everywhere.

Ruined by the Choice of Parents.

Everywhere we go, we see splendid natural ability wrecked by mislaid occupations. There is a crushing, blighting influence in work which the soul loathes, and against which every faculty perpetually protests.

We are fed by hope and anticipation, and there is nothing which kills aspiration and ambition more quickly than trying to do something for which we are not at all fitted.

You can read the misery engendered by a mislaid vocation in one's face and manner. Disappointment is manifested in every attitude and movement; dead hopes leave their pitiless marks in every line of the face.

We can hardly conceive of anything more cruel than for parents to persuade or compel those dearer to them than their own lives to engage in occupations for which they have no natural ability, and against which the whole nature of the boy or girl revolts. They may think they are acting wisely in choosing what they believe to be the most honorable or lucrative professions or businesses for their children; but, when they attempt to oppose nature, they make a mistake which not only dwarfs the faculties of those they seek to benefit, but also, in a great many instances, ruins their prospects for life.—Success.

Live in the Present.

Much of the best energy of the world is wasted in living in the past or dreaming of the future. Some people seem to think any time but the present is a good time to live in. But the men who move the world must be a part of it. They must touch the life that now is, and feel the thrill of the movement of civilization.

Many people do not live in the present. It does not know them. They are buried in books; they live in archives, and in history, but the great throbbing pulse of the world they do not touch. They are not a part of the world; they are never attuned to it.

The young man who would win must plunge into the current of events. He must keep step with the march of progress, or he will soon be in the rear. The current of the times must run through his veins, or there will be paralysis somewhere in his nature.—Success.

CREMATION OF INDIANS.

The Yuma Tribe, in Arizona, Still Following Out Their Ancient Customs.

From time immemorial the Yuma Indians have cremated their dead. The custom is so old and time-honored amongst them that no Indian's memory runneth to the contrary. The Yuma Sentinel says: "Lately an attack of measles has been playing sad havoc amongst the Yumas across the Colorado river and nightly the red glare of the funeral pyre lights up the horizon all around the mountain chain encircling their reservation. The scent of the burning flesh can be sensibly perceived in the atmosphere by any one in this city who has his olfactory exposed at the time. But with the dead dies every living thing belonging to the deceased. All other property likewise perishes. This obliteration of all earthly possessions, of course, makes the Yumas the poorest Indian tribe in America, and always will, unless they are in some way restrained in the exercise of this custom."

Free Ourselves.

We can no more free ourselves from sin than we can forgive ourselves. The direct action of God upon the mind cannot be denied by the devout believer. Its recognition is not superstition but faith. If there is declared that there is a its heart a very great mystery, we can only answer that our Lord admits the fact, and neither do we deny it, but remember nature has its secrets as well as grace. What we do not know is very much greater than all that we do know. We who are confused by the problem of how a soul is born can not explain how a great thought is born, from whence comes it, what is its genesis?—these things we can not understand. But "why should it be with thee a thing impossible that God should raise the dead?" What we know of the origin of all life renders it only more reasonable to expect that when begotten in the soul the process will not be wholly comprehensible. Rev. Dr. G. C. Lorimer, Baptist, New York city.

Still Had It.

An old colored Phoenix brother in a prayer meeting said: "Brethren and sisters, I have been a mighty mean nigger in my time. I has had a heap uv ups and downs, especially downs, since I jined the church; I stole chickens and watermelons, I cussed, I got drunk, I shot craps, I slashed udder coons wid my razor, an' I done a sight o' things, but thank de Lawd, bredderlin and sistern, I never lost my religion."—Democrat.

Could Not Breathe.

Coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, other throat and lung troubles are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. One Minute Cough Cure is not a mere expectorant, which gives only temporary relief. It softens and liquefies the mucous, draws out the inflammation and removes the cause of the disease. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. "One Minute Cough Cure will do all that is claimed for it," says Justice of the Peace J. Q. Hood, Crosby, Miss. "My wife could not get her breath and was relieved by the first dose. It has been a benefit to all my family. Globe Drug Store, Roberts & Peterson."

"We intend to show our superiority to the men!" she said. "Madam," said the gentlemen of the old school, "your enterprise is one which would command more interest if it had a greater element of novelty. I can not recall any case in point since Adam and Eve in which the ability of the lady to do as she chose was not completely demonstrated."—Washington Star.

Practically Starving.

"After using a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure my wife received perfect and permanent relief from a severe and chronic case of stomach trouble," says J. B. Holly, real estate, insurance and loan agent, of Macomb, Ill. "Before using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she could not eat an ordinary meal without intense suffering. She is now entirely cured. Several physicians and many remedies had failed to give relief. You don't have to diet. Eat any good food you want, but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will always digest it for you. Globe Drug Store, Roberts & Peterson."

A Missouri judge has decided that "it is no crime for a man to kiss a lady if she is willing; that the kiss cannot disturb the peace of anyone so long as it is conducted in a gentlemanly manner and reasonable moderation." This Missouri judge evidently has been shown.

Surgeon's Knife Not Needed.

Surgery is no longer needed to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures such cases at once, removing the necessity for dangerous, painful and expensive operations. For scalds, cuts, burns, wounds, bruises, sores and skin diseases it is unequalled. Beware of counterfeits. Globe Drug Store, Roberts & Peterson.
